Customer Reviews

Most certainly this is the only negative review I have ever given on but its worth it so others do not encounter the same problem as I did. To begin with this is a pricey book for 18" dolls and matching patterns, I have other books written by the same author and they are quite wonderful (I also knit and ravelry offers many free knit and crochet patterns if you are intersted also!)Patterns for girls are ONLY size 4, 6 and 8,so dont expect much in szing hereAdditional, (wondering who's idea this was??) THE COVER dress is NOT included in the book, they " suggest" you purchase a similar pattern,,,,,OK that is ONe pattern not included (cover pattern mind you) but no capri's for the matching capri girl /doll pattern (again, its suggested to purchase something similar!) and of course,,,no leggings for the girls which is shown thru out the book,,,,,so what, I ask you did I pay for??We are sewing these patterns so we dont have to pay a whole lot of money for matching outfits but begin to add it all up and you have to wonder if its worth it anymore!That made me make my final decision to order OTTOBRE magazine for childrens clothing and to order a different book that I will mention later in this review and now I am satisfied that I will be getting some cute childrens clothing and get away from the BOring" big 4" very overpriced patterns that we have offered in our pattern shops.I have a 9yr old grandaughter who wanted a few matching outfits for her upcoming birthday so we could have lunch at one of the American Girl Doll resturants (Chicago in my case) get her doll's ears pierced and have her hair done~ This was supposed to be a special Nana/grandaughter day for both of us. LO and behold,,,,,these outfits only go to a size 8!
