What The Heart Wants (Heart Series Book 1)

Synopsis

She's a horse whisperer. He's a slick city lawyer. Who'd have thought they'd be perfect for one another? With another crushing breakup behind her, Elle Roberts is done with love. These days all her energy is devoted to her equestrian business. That is until Nicholas Sterling arrives with his horse, Leo. After one ride, she's convinced she can help the troubled animal. But what about the man? Sure he's rich and charming and ridiculously handsome, but Elle assures herself she's not interested. Turns out that's a big fat lie. Nicholas knows she's damaged. And damaged people don't deserve love. But something extraordinary happens when he's with Elle. For the first time in his life, he's able to trust. In her. And in them. The future stretches before him, filled with glorious possibilities. And he's happy. Incredibly, unbelievably happy. But no sooner are they settled into their relationship than a tragic event triggers Nicholas's deepest insecurities. Can Elle find a way to heal his heart or will this ultimately tear them apart?If you yearn for romance with deep emotional connections between the characters - this is the story you've been waiting for. What the Heart Wants is the first novel in the Heart Series. Each book follows the story of one woman all the way to her happily-ever-after. The Heart Series continues on with Drawing from the Heart and Feeding the Heart, also available on .

Customer Reviews

This book was absolutely amazing, I loved it! This author has a remarkable talent for including the traditional aspects you love in a romance while adding a new and unique twist of her own with the horse element. It feels like just the right amount of reality with a little something extra that has you believing, what if there really are people out there with the gift of communicating with animals? It feels like anything is possible...The characters are so easy to connect with. They were compelling and real, even their flaws made them feel even more perfect. I loved each one of them. Elle is so strong, bold and honest. She is such a fantastic person and women could certainly benefit from taking a page from her book. And Nicholas, (swooning and butterflies) is delicious and so unbelievably sexy. He's powerful and sweet, strong and vulnerable all rolled into one. I loved how Maggie nicknamed everyone. That had me laughing out loud. Each character's voice is clearly different and it allows you to forget you're even reading and just sink into the story. The tension and sort of "will they or won't they" aspect of Elle and Nicholas's relationship was well balanced. It had me turning pages but didn't frustrate me to the point of becoming at all irritated with the story. That is so important with this type of plot. I never had to work to conjure up the setting created in each scene and the description never pulled me out of the story. The details enhanced rather than distracted from the setting. This author shows rather than tells a story and just bring this book to life. I never like to give spoilers in a review so I left out a lot of my favorite scenes in detail but there are many to love. I recommend this book to all romance readers. You will be a fan of this author for life.

Lovely romance book. Very light on the sex part. Very sensual making the reader panting for more, but the author only touches the surface and the reader is left panting. At one point I said "WHAT!" However the story is so good that you won't mind. I thought it was very well written with good characters abound. I also loved the story because I am a "believer".

This was a 5 star read for me because of the back drop of the horse life.. If your not into horses it should still be a 4 star read... Great writing and story... Adding the horse life in the background and doing it well made it even better.. We (horse addicts) need more writers who can combine our passion/life of horses with a great story !!!! Will be looking forward to more from this author...

This was a wonderful book. I picked it up being a horse person. but when I was reading it I reached out to a friend who should read it to see even that it was only a book she wasn't alone.

I love the way the author gets me to care about her characters and how she tells a story. A little romance, a little mystery, a little super sensory connection....a really good read!
