Customer Reviews

This starts out with a few traditional Polish recipes like Pierogies and then moves on to other cultures such as Italian and Caesar salad. This "author" doesn't write her own recipes or even give credit as to where she found/stole/copied them from. Don't support thieves and the theft of intellectual property from other web sites on the Internet. This author cannot hold the copyright because these are not original works!! She's even too lazy to make her own pictures of the food. Instead, she crops the pictures of the food submitted by the people who posted the recipes and their source on food.com. She has the same picture on the cover of her book so either she stole that also or "she" is a fake as well as a thief.

My girlfriend is polish so i wanted to surprise her with a healthy fresh meal. These were great recipes to prepare. I'm not the best in the kitchen but it is a simple guide to follow. I recommend trying a few recipes.

Elizabeth T. Torrence opens the kitchen to the smells and tastes of fine vegetarian cookery with this book devoted to Polish vegetarian recipes. Known to be in the forefront of healthy diets, these recipes are not only easy to prepare, but each recipe gives a list of ingredients to prepare ahead of time, well written directions on how to prepare the dishes, and each dish is accompanied with a color photograph of just how the finished product will look. The taste test is up to you! Some of the recipes included are Polish Mushroom Barley Soup, Chrusciki- Bow Knots, Polish Pasta and Cabbage, Creamy Microwave Rice Pudding, Polish Twelve Fruit Compote, Polish Cranberry Dessert, Red Cabbage with Apple, Zucchini-Mozzarella Patties, Banana-Oatmeal Bread, Hot Bananas in Coconut Milk, Polish Tortellini Salad, Soy Glazed Tofu and Asparagus, Chocolate Toffee Candy Cookies, Purple Cabbage & Pecan Salad, Chocolate Covered Pretzels and many more. You'd never tell by the titles that these are health oriented foods, but they definitely are. For nutritious and healthy and tasty dishes you can't go wrong with the variety in Elizabeth T. Torrence's book. Grady Harp, January 14

This cookbook contain Top class delicious and easy recipes. Each recipe is accompanied by a captivating photo of the final dish. Ingredients are easy to follow and easily available in the market. Measurements of the ingredients are precise. Directions for each of the recipe is very easy to follow. From me, I highly recommend this delicious cookbook.

This book is so lame, half the recipes aren't even Polish!!
